

STUDENT EVALUATION COMMENTS

HARRY RICHMAN

For classes as Primary Instructor.

- Harry was both engaging to students and engaged with the students. His use of colored chalk also enhanced my experience a great deal.
- Harry was an excellent teacher—he was patient, fun, positive, and clear, especially when explaining difficult subject matter. 10/10 would recommend
- Quality of instruction in this course was great. Harry was very dedicated to making sure I understood concepts that I did not understand and was very patient.
- I thought my GSI did a very good job explaining the material.
- Quality of teaching was good. The GSI was always willing to help even outside of his office hours
- Instructions were clear and well explained.
- Overall, he was enthusiastic and willing to help students whenever possible. He probably didn't need to email us as frequently as he did, but that is better than instructors who don't communicate with students outside of class and office hours.
- I like the fact that we work as teams on assignments. It helped me adapt to college life.
- Harry is an awesome GSI who always gives good explanations for hard questions.
- Harry is an excellent instructor!! I love him! He is willing to help us in every way possible and he even holds extra office hours during weekends to help. Harry is the best!

For classes as Teaching Assistant.

- Harry did an excellent job of explaining difficult concepts to students
- Really did help to explain more confusing concepts in a different way than the professor.
- Harry was a really good instructor. His lectures were pretty clear and he was helpful when we asked questions. His office hours were super helpful too.
- Harry was always very clear and helpful if anyone had questions.
- When explaining material, the instructor was really helpful. He explained in a very clear way.
- Harry is great at explaining the material clearly
- Harry is very helpful at explaining problems and always makes himself available to answer questions.
- The GSI was very good at explaining concepts. Sometimes he was quiet, but not often. His instruction helped me understand material a lot better.
- My GSI was very willing to help and had flexible office hours, which was extremely helpful.
